

April 8-9, 2016 Scholar-In-Residence Shabbat Parashat Tazria/ Shabbat Hachodesh

Dr. Michael Fishbane

Professor Fishbane is the Nathan Cummings Distinguished Service Professor of Jewish Studies at the University of Chicago. His areas of research and interest span the history of textual interpretation, from ancient Near Eastern antiquity to the present. His work and thought is featured in an upcoming publication: Michael Fishbane: Jewish Hermeneutical Theology by Brill.

6:30 pm April 8 Minchah/Kabbalat Shabbat

Dr. Fishbane will offer a brief teaching on the Parasha
(at the home of Rachel and Will Adler*)

9:00 am April 9 Shabbat morning services

“Shir Hashirim: Voices of Love, Longing and Spiritual Quest”
(lecture and text study after K’riat Hatorah- babysitting extended)

6:45 pm April 9 Shabbat afternoon “shmooze” followed by Ma’ariv & Havdalah

“The Task of Jewish Theology Today: Some Personal Considerations”
(at the Mattenson home*)

*For address and other details please contact Rachel Sakofs at rachelrem82@gmail.com